

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 315
By Womack

A RESOLUTION to congratulate and commend Charles David Glover on his outstanding work and exemplary performance as the private intern for Senator Andy Womack.

WHEREAS, throughout the course of each legislative session, there have emerged certain individuals who far exceed the basic requirements set forth for them to follow; and

WHEREAS, Charles David Glover has distinguished himself as one such individual through his hard work and tireless efforts as a legislative intern for Senator Andy Womack and his staff, Sandi Jones and Jacqueline Nash; and

WHEREAS, David is currently attending Middle Tennessee State University, majoring in Political Science and minoring in Psychology and Speech and Theatre; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Glover is a resident of Bedford County, Tennessee and is the son of proud parents, Carl and Carolyn Glover; and

WHEREAS, he has experienced the finer points of the Tennessee General Assembly and has especially enjoyed commuting to Nashville, preparing Senator Womack's session packets, observing the Senate in action and meeting Governor Don Sundquist; and

WHEREAS, he has also enjoyed the benefits of being a legislative intern, such as great coffee every day and fresh donuts on Wednesday, "Team Womack" staff meetings, and the camaraderie of fellow interns and staff of the General Assembly; and

44553753

44553753

008078

00807847

WHEREAS, he has become acquainted with the things that make the Tennessee General Assembly truly unique, such as the massive daily paperwork, the wonderful Legislative Plaza cafeteria and the importance of decaffeinated coffee; and

WHEREAS, his internship experience will stand him in good stead as he pursues a career as an educator and statesman after having had the opportunity to watch the intricacies of the committee system and Senators Womack, Graves and Ford in action, as well as observing Lieutenant Governor John S. Wilder preside over the Senate; and

WHEREAS, never again as an intern will David view legislative battles from the stage of the committee room, be sent on missions for more coffee or copies, file anything, or be summoned by the call of "Flagman"; and

WHEREAS, the only things, other than a congratulatory resolution, that could make his internship complete would be his own private interstate, an individual fax machine, a working copier, and an eternity of free lunches, none of which were included in any of the budget amendments he filed with the Senate Finance Committee to obtain the necessary funding; and

WHEREAS, Charles David Glover has performed his duties and many responsibilities with extraordinary ingenuity and decorum, which in the words of Speaker Wilder translates to "He was good"; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE-HUNDREDTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we hereby commend and congratulate Charles David Glover on his outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Andy Womack, and staff, Sandi Jones and Jacqueline Nash and express our deepest appreciation and thanks to him. We wish David every good thing in life and success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That three appropriate copies of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copies.